F. KEATS BOYD, III & WHITNEY TASHJIAN

Attorney F. Keats Boyd, III, is a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross. After serving in the U.S. Air Force as a Captain, he received his doctorate, cum laude, from Suffolk University Law School. He has more than 30 years of experience as an estate planning attorney. His clients are from across the state, as well as up and down the eastern seaboard and from as far west as Arizona, California, Hawaii and Washington state. Mr. Boyd is admitted to the Bar of Massachusetts, the U.S. Tax Court, the U.S. District Court of Massachusetts, the First Circuit Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States. He is also a member of the Massachusetts Bar Association, Barnstable Bar Association, National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys, Inc. (NAELA™), and InterActive Legal and MBA Probate Law Section, and the Estate Planning Council of Cape Cod. Attorney Boyd is a well-known and well-respected lecturer. He regularly conducts educational seminars for continuing education credit and for the general public. Comments from past attendees include: “The best I have attended;” “Very enlightening,” and “Excellent presentation-learned a lot !”

Attorney Whitney N. Tashjian is a graduate of The College of the Holy Cross and Suffolk University Law School. She is admitted to the Bar of Massachusetts, the District of Columbia (D.C.), the United States District Court of Massachusetts and the United States Tax Court. Prior to joining Boyd & Boyd, P. C., Whitney served as Counsel for the Law Office of Lindsey M. Straus, a general practice firm based on Cape Cod. She was a Securities Litigation Paralegal for five years at Mintz Levin in Boston, where she was responsible for filing securities class action and SEC cases on behalf of institutional investors. She also interned with the Law Offices of Vinca Jarrett & Associates, a small Boston-based entertainment firm, culminating in an opportunity to represent the firm at the 2013 Cannes Film Festival. Whitney was a competitive figure skater with the United States Figure Skating Association and grew up spending her summers on the Cape with her family. She is also a member of InterActive Legal, the Barnstable Bar Association, and the Estate Planning Council of Cape Cod.
